SEEL Research Event

What is SEEL?

The Department of Economics is the home to Scotland’s first experimental economics laboratory: The Scottish Experimental Economics Laboratory (SEEL). SEEL also refers to the Aberdeen’s research group interested in experimental economics (and related subjects), which includes researchers from the Business School (BS), the Health Economics Research Unit (HERU), and the James Hutton Institute (JH). Further information can be found at <https://www.abdn.ac.uk/business/research/scottish-experimental-economics-laboratory-seel-277.php>.

On the 22nd of February 2023, a SEEL Research Event will take place featuring Professor Steven Tucker (University of Waikato, <https://profiles.waikato.ac.nz/steven.tucker>) as guest speaker. Below is the program.

TIME	ACTIVITY
13:30 - 14:00	Coffee and welcome
14:00 - 14:40	Laure Kuhfuss (JH), ‘Relative poverty and decision-making: investigating the impact of the hunger season on farmers preferences in Madagascar’
