

Convictions and Suspicions in Early Modernity: A Symposium in Honour of Professor William G. Naphy

Sir Duncan Rice Library (Craig Suite), Aberdeen

Friday 22 November 2024

The Sack of Lyon by the Calvinists in 1562 (unknown artist), Musée d'Histoire de Lyon (via Wikimedia Commons)

Outline Programme

- 11:00 Arrival, 11:15 Welcome & opening remarks
- 11:30-13:00: Session 1
Lunch
- 14:00-15:30: Session 2
Tea & coffee
- 16:00-17:30: Session 3
- 17:30-18:00: Response and Closing Remarks
- 18:00 Reception
- 19:30 Dinner (for speakers, chairs, and organisers)

Proceedings will be in person, with most sessions held as hybrid/online.

Speakers & session chairs include - Dr Jared Thomley (Aberdeen), Professor Andrew Spicer (Oxford-Brookes), Professor Andrew Simpson (Aberdeen), Professor Penny Roberts (Warwick), Professor Karin Maag (Calvin University), Dr Chris Langley (OU), Professor Robert Frost (Aberdeen), Professor Karin Friedrich (Aberdeen).

If you would like to attend please contact Professor Jackson Armstrong (j.armstrong@abdn.ac.uk).

Supported by the Mary R. S. Creese Bequest, the Research Institute of Irish & Scottish Studies, the Centre for Early Modern Studies, and the School of Divinity, History, Philosophy & Art History.