Michaela [00:00:03] Hi, I'm Michaela, and I'm here with my colleague Georgie.

Georgie [00:00:06] Hi, we're here to introduce you to our new podcast, Ask Aberdeen hosted by the University of Aberdeen.

Michaela [00:00:11] So, each Thursday we will be speaking to current Aberdeen students, as well as members of staff who can answer many of your frequently asked questions about studying at Aberdeen and what it's like to be a student in general, also specifically in Aberdeen. So, if the world of applying to university and also then going to university, that just really baffles you, this is the podcast for you

Georgie [00:00:31] We will cover topics including go-abroad and places you can study in other countries, life in Aberdeen, what there is to do outside of classes, moving from college to university for Scottish students, writing a personal statement and choosing which degree is right for you to name a few.

Michaela [00:00:43] I personally never visited Aberdeen before applying, so I hope that this podcast gives you a little bit of a flavor of what it's like to be a student here at Aberdeen and also what the city is like, even if you can't visit beforehand, like I couldn't.

Georgie [00:00:56] Yes, I also ended up at a university that I never managed to visit and something I was really worried about was what to put in my personal statement. I was applying for law, so I knew it had to be good, but I had no idea what to include. So, we will have an episode on personal statements and what to include to help you know more.

Michaela [00:01:09] Yeah, this is definitely something I wish I had when I was applying, just someone to really tell you, what is important, what you should focus on and just give you a little bit of advice. So, do subscribe to our podcast to ensure you don't miss any of our episodes. We will have so much more to share with you. And we hope that you enjoy listening.

Georgie [00:01:26] We hope to see you on our first episode of Ask Aberdeen.
