Exam papers can be accessed through Primo, either by searching for a course code or by browsing by subject.
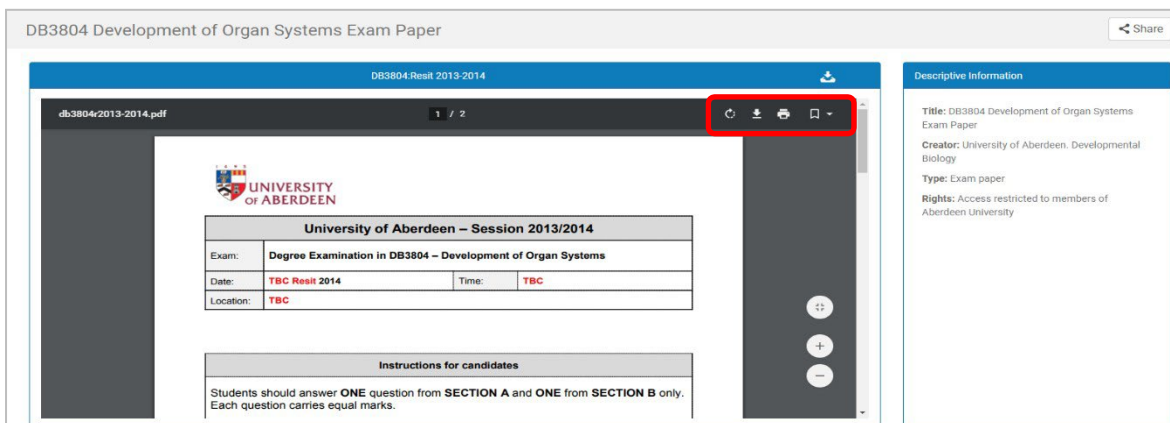

Search for papers on Primo

- To search for exam papers for a specific course, type your course code (e.g. DB3804) into the search box for 'Books+' and click on Search.
- The results page will list the result for that course code. To see exam papers only, select Resource Type from the menu on the left-hand side and then select Exam papers.

- Click on the course name to see the papers for individual years and resits.
- Sign in using your university username and password to be able to open the papers.

- Once signed in the padlock symbol will become a lauch symbol. Click this to open the paper in a new window.
- To print or save the exam paper use the icons at the top of the paper.
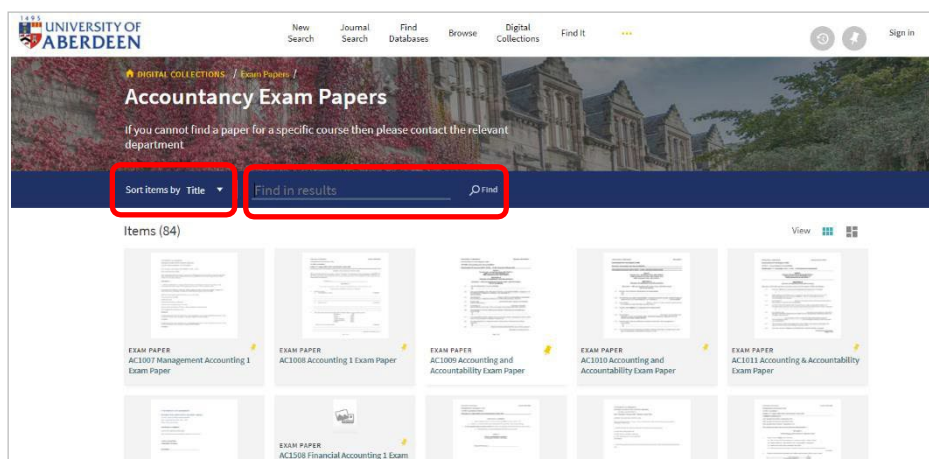

Browse for papers in Primo

- Click on the Digital Collections list on the Primo front page.

- Click on Exam Papers Collection and then click on the subject area you require.

- The exam papers in this subject area can then be ordered using the sort function, or a search can be done within that subject.

	Please note that Schools do not always submit all exam papers to the library for the database - if you cannot find a paper for a specific course then it has not been submitted by the relevant school and you should contact the school directly for a copy.
