

Learning & Teaching Event in the New South King's Quad Development
Wednesday 8 January 2020, 13:30-16:30

Collaborate Lecture Space KCG7, King's College

Programme

13:30-14:00	Refreshments	Room KCG5
14:00-14:10	Welcome and Introductions  Professor Karl Leydecker , Senior Vice-Principal Professor Ruth Taylor , Vice-Principal Education	Room KCG7
14:10-16:00	Keynote Presentation  Dr Lorraine Anderson , Assistant Director & Head of Academic Skills Centre; Lynn Boyle , Senior Lecturer; Dr Rachel Horrocks-Birss , Academic Literacies Developer; University of Dundee  'Another brick in the assessment wall: an overview and case study of the development of Transforming the Experience of Students through Assessment (TESTA) at the University of Dundee'  This session will focus on the vision for TESTA at Dundee, how that has been brought to life, and its successes and challenges over the last eight years. The team from Dundee will look at the introduction of TESTA and how it operates within the University and focus on a case study example from the BA Childhood Practice/Studies. There will then be an opportunity for a workshop activity to support participants in reflecting on the potential for TESTA at the University of Aberdeen.	Room KCG7
16:00-16:30	Tour of the facilities	KCG7-8 and KCF7-8