

Supplementary Regulations for Award of all Bachelor of Divinity (BD) and the Degree of Bachelor of Theology (BTh) Degrees

1. Every candidate for the Degrees of Bachelor of Divinity (BD) and Bachelor of Theology (BTh) must, unless granted a concession in accordance with General Regulations for First Degrees Regulation 14, attend during one of the following minimum periods, as applicable, approved courses of instruction at the University of Aberdeen:
 - (i) Candidates for the degree by full-time study only: not less than three sessions in the case of the Degrees of BD non-Honours and BTh non-Honours; not less than four sessions in the case of the Degrees of BD with Honours and BTh with Honours.
 - (ii) Candidates for the degree by part-time study only: not less than six sessions in the case of the Degrees of BD non-Honours and BTh non-Honours and not less than eight sessions in the case of the Degrees of BD with Honours and BTh with Honours.
 - (iii) Candidates for the degree by a combination of both part-time and full-time study: such period as may be determined in individual cases by the Senatus Academicus and in accordance with General Regulation 17.1 for First Degrees.

Where a candidate is granted exemption or recognition on the basis of previous study, the minimum period of study for candidates at the University of Aberdeen may be reduced appropriately by the Senatus Academicus, but in no case shall the degree be awarded unless the period of study at the University of Aberdeen has been at least one session.

2. Courses will normally be studied in sequence within a given discipline as follows: level 1, level 2, level 3, level 4.
3. Candidates must normally attend qualifying courses in the University of Aberdeen during the whole of the final session of their study.
4. Candidates shall normally offer a dissertation in their final year of study.
