

ENERGY ECONOMICS AND FINANCE (ONLINE) (PgCert)

63N1PFVZ

Duration: 9 months full-time (PgCert).

Content:

Students will initially enrol on 0 credit, non-assessment versions of the following courses. Students can then elect to register for the credit bearing versions of the courses in order to take the assessment and achieve the Postgraduate Certificate.

EC50B1 Quantitative Methods for Energy Economics (15 credits)
EC50B2 Economic Analysis for Energy Economics (15 credits)
EC50B3 Corporate Finance and Accounting for Energy (15 credits)
EC50B4 Issues in Energy Economics (15 credits)

Assessment: By course work, by written examination or by a combination of those, as prescribed for each course.

Note: the 0 credit versions of the courses are coded EC50A1/EC50A2/EC50A3 and EC50A4 respectively.