

Convictions and Suspicions in Early Modernity: A Symposium in Honour of Professor William G. Naphy

Sir Duncan Rice Library (Craig Suite), Aberdeen

Friday 22 November 2024

The Sack of Lyon by the Calvinists in 1562 (unknown artist), Musée d'Histoire de Lyon (via Wikimedia Commons)

Programme

- 11:00 Arrival
- 11:15 Welcome & opening remarks: Professor Jackson Armstrong
- 11:30-12:15: Professor Andrew Spicer (Oxford-Brookes): 'Urban Burial in Post-Reformation Scotland, c. 1560–1625' / Chair: Professor Andrew Simpson (Aberdeen)
- 12:15-13:00: Dr Jared Thomley (Aberdeen): 'For the Kirk or the Poor: Charity and lay participation in 1620s Aberdeen' / Chair: Dr Marie-Luise Ehrenschtndtner (Aberdeen)
- 13:00 Lunch
- 14:00-15:00: Dr Chris Langley (OU): 'Reform, Iconoclasm and a Shortage of Eggs: The Aberdeen General Assembly of 1640' / Chair: Professor Karin Friedrich (Aberdeen)
- 15:00 Tea & coffee
- 15:45-16:30: Professor Penny Roberts (Warwick): Toads and Tennis Balls: Carrying Correspondence and other Material Things in sixteenth-century France / Chair: Professor Ali Cathcart (Stirling)
- 16:30-17:15: Professor Robert Frost (Aberdeen): 'Tolerance and Toleration. Religion and Politics in the Polish-Lithuanian Union after 1569' / Chair: Professor Karin Maag (Calvin University)

- 17:15-18:00: Response and Closing Remarks
- 18:00 Reception (Welcome from Professor Beth Lord)
- 19:30 Dinner (for speakers, chairs, and organisers)

Proceedings will be in person, with all sessions held as hybrid/online.

If you would like to attend please contact Professor Jackson Armstrong (j.armstrong@abdn.ac.uk).

Supported by the Mary R. S. Creese Bequest, the Research Institute of Irish & Scottish Studies, the Centre for Early Modern Studies, and the School of Divinity, History, Philosophy & Art History.