About your Collection [1000-2000 words]

RULES & FURTHER INFORMATION FOR SHORTLISTED CANDIDATES

1. The prize is awarded through the generous support of Dr William Zachs. Its purpose is to encourage students at the University of Aberdeen to develop their own coherent collections of printed material.
2. Payment of the prize will be in two parts. The first part is a payment of £500 to the winner with the expectation that this will be used to enhance their collection. The second part is an allowance of £250 for the purchase of an item or items for the University Collections, (within six months of the award) to be selected by the winner in co-operation with University Collections curator(s).
3. The prize will be offered to a registered student at the University of Aberdeen. This includes undergraduate and postgraduate students, taught and research students, and part-time and full-time students. Students pursuing Individual Subject Study are not eligible to apply.
4. The entrant must have an existing collection and be its sole owner. The collection may consist of books or other printed material and have a common theme.
5. You may resubmit an application from a previous year if you can demonstrate its development in the intervening period.
6. Entries should be submitted using the University of Aberdeen Thomas Reid Collecting Prize 2025 application form.
7. The Prize will be awarded at the judges' discretion. The award will be based on the interest, originality, thoughtfulness, creativity and importance of the collection, and the vision of the collector. The age, size and monetary value of the collection will not be relevant criteria. The judges' decision on any matter is final.
8. Entries will be judged by a panel drawn from University Collections, the University of Aberdeen Development Trust SCIO, and relevant academic disciplines.
9. If won by an undergraduate, the prize will be recorded on their enhance degree transcript.
10. Completed application forms must be emailed to Jennifer Shaw: jennifer.shaw1@abdn.ac.uk no later than Friday 14th February 2025.
