

ELPHINSTONE  INSTITUTE

UNIVERSITY OF ABERDEEN

The Elphinstone Institute at the University of Aberdeen in conjunction Aberdeenshire Council present

“Your North East”

One day conference of illustrated talks on North-East Scotland's heritage for both visitors and residents

On Monday 20 July 2009

At King's College Conference Centre, University of Aberdeen, Old Aberdeen

All welcome, £25.00 per person includes refreshments and lunch

Please register in advance using the booking form supplied below, or online:

<http://www.abdn.ac.uk/elphinstone/documents/yne-booking-form.doc>

Conference registration and Coffee / Tea on arrival	Conference Centre Foyer	9.00 - 9.30
Welcome	Chair for the Day – Dr. Ian Russell, Director of the Elphinstone Institute, Mac.Robert Building, University of Aberdeen	9.30 - 9.45
By Dee, Don & Deveron : Aerial survey of Aberdeenshire's historic landscape	Moira Greig Archaeologist, Aberdeenshire Council Airborne Archaeology Specialist	9.45 - 10.15
NE Castles and Great Houses in their designed landscapes	Dr. Shannon M. Fraser Archaeologist, East Scotland National Trust for Scotland	10.20 – 10.50
Coffee/ Tea		11.00 - 11.30
Heraldry in Family History	Gordon Casely, Scottish Heraldry Society, Lonach Highlanders Society & Heritage Strategy Consultant	11.30 - 12.00
Dressed to Kilt !	Brian Wilton, Director of the Scottish Tartans Authority	12.10 - 12.40
LUNCH	Conference Centre	12.50 - 2.00
Doric ballad and fiddle tradition with a guest performers	Elphinstone Institute, University of Aberdeen	2.00 - 2.45
Coffee/Tea		2.45 - 3.15
NE Castle & House Interiors	Ian Gow, Curator, National Trust for Scotland	3.15 - 3.45
North Easterns Abroad	Prof. Paul Dukes, Emeritus Professor Department of History, University of Aberdeen	3.55 - 4.25
Summary and Thanks to Speakers	Conference Chair – Dr. Ian Russell	4.30 - 4.45

Booking Form supplied on page 2