

Supplementary Regulations for the Award of all Master of Arts (MA) Degrees

First Degree programmes in Arts and Social Sciences may lead as appropriate to the award of a Degree of Master of Arts (360 credits, including 60 at level 3), a Designated Degree of Master of Arts (360 credits, including at least 240 at level 1 and 2 and 90 at level 3 in a specified discipline), a Degree of Master of Arts with Honours (480 credits, including at least 240 at levels 1 and 2 with at least 180 credits at level 3 or above, a minimum of 90 of these being at level 4). Candidates for a Designated Degree of Master of Arts or Degree of Master of Arts with Honours must in addition comply with the specification for one of the relevant degree programmes specified in Regulations 6 or 9. They must also satisfactorily complete any field work or practical courses as outlined in the programme prescription.

1. Every candidate for the Degree of Master of Arts must, unless granted a concession in accordance with General Regulations for First Degrees Regulation 14, attend during one of the following minimum periods, as applicable, approved courses of instruction in the University of Aberdeen:
  - (i) Candidates for the degree by full-time study only: not less than three sessions in the case of the Degree of Master of Arts or Designated Degree of Master of Arts; not less than four sessions in the case of a Degree of Master of Arts with Honours.
  - (ii) Candidates for the degree by part-time study only: not less than five sessions in the case of a Degree of Master of Arts, not less than six sessions in the case of a Designated Degree of Master of Arts and not less than eight sessions in the case of a Degree of Master of Arts with Honours.
  - (iii) Candidates for the degree by a combination of both part-time and full-time study: such period as may be determined in individual cases by the Senatus Academicus and in accordance with General Regulation 17.1 for First Degrees.

In terms of General Regulation 4 for First Degrees, part-time study is permitted at levels one and two for all degrees. Those degree programmes marked with an asterisk (*) in the awards list in Supplementary Regulation 6 may only be undertaken by full-time study at Honours level.

Where a candidate is granted exemption or recognition on the basis of previous study, the minimum period of study for candidates at the University of Aberdeen may be reduced appropriately by the Senatus Academicus, but in no case shall the degree be awarded unless the period of study at the University of Aberdeen has been at least one session.

2. Courses will normally be studied in sequence within a given discipline as follows: level 1, level 2, level 3, level 4, level 5 (undergraduate).
3. Courses may include practical, laboratory or field work as prescribed, but it shall be in the power of the examiners to accept, in lieu of practical examination, evidence that candidates have carried out observational, experimental or research work of a sufficient standard during their practical, laboratory or field work.
