Sophia (DRS Women's Network)

We're delighted to bring you details of our upcoming Sophia (DRS Women's Network) sessions for this term. As with last term, all of our meetings will be held on MS Teams. You can search for "Sophia (DRS Women's Network)" in MS Teams, or drop us an email if you'd like to be added to the Teams space. Note that details below include local Aberdeen time, but distance students are warmly encouraged to join us too!

Monday 1st February: Welcome back social

3.00-4.30pm: A chance to catch up with old friends and make new ones- bring your own coffee/tea! First-time attendees are very welcome.

Monday 15th February: Viva workshop

3.00-4.00pm: A short workshop looking towards the end of the PhD and the viva exam. All welcome, regardless of stage (prospective PhDs too!)

Monday 8th March: Prof. Françoise Mirguet

4.00-5.30pm: We will be joined by Prof. Françoise Mirguet who is Jess Schwartz Associate Professor of Hebrew and Near Eastern Cultures at Arizona State University. Prof. Mirguet will be speaking on her research, particularly on violence, forgiveness, and reconciliation practices in scripture and across cultures.

Monday 29th March: Easter social

7.00-9.00pm: An evening social before we take a break for the holidays.

(date/time TBC) May: Dr. Eve Parker

Dr. Eve Parker, Postdoctoral Research Associate in Theological Education at Durham University, will be our guest for our final session of the term in May. Time and date TBC- more details to follow.

Have you considered becoming a Class Representative?

For those taking Divinity courses this year, from Undergraduate level 1 to level 4, why not consider becoming a class rep!?

Class Representatives provide a vital role in collating and providing course and Programme feedback. The role involves liaising with course and Programme co-ordinators.

If you are interested in becoming a class representative, please send an email to your course co-ordinator by Friday 15th February 2021.
